World War Two

The son of John and Matilda Soady, of Balmain, Alfred was a devoted son, with many hobbies. He was a member of the North Narrabeen Surf Club and was employed at Westcott Hazel (a motor accessory supplier).

In August 1943, Mrs Soady received word that her son had been killed in an operational flight from England to South Africa, with the crash taking place near Durban. A service of memory was held at St John's on Sunday August 1st at 7.17pm.
